

M1 FEE SCHEDULE

M1 INVEST FEES

Trading Fees (Non-commission fees)

ADR

Please note when trading American Depository Receipts (ADR), fees may apply and are charged to you as the holder of the ADR. Fee information for a specific ADR may be obtained from that ADR's custodial bank.

Regulatory

Regulatory expenses are mandated fees passed on to the consumer. These occur when users sell a stock or ETF, and often cost only a few pennies. For example, if you sell ten shares of Apple stock at $150 per share, you would pay a total of 1 cents in regulatory expenses — nothing for SEC¹ fees and 1 cent in TAF² fees. These costs are calculated as follows:

¹SEC (Securities Exchange Commission) Fee* = total price of transaction x $ 0.00002060

²TAF (Trading Activity Fee) Fee* = $0.000195 per share (up to $9.79 max per trade)

*Fees are rounded up to the nearest penny

Note: Regulatory Trading Fees are set by law and regulation and are subject to change without notice. You should always check the current posted M1 Fee Schedule
